Lisa:

I had expected to hear from you today, per your email below, as to whether GSK will consent to our filing our amended answer and counterclaims. I've contacted your office and understand you are in a meeting. Please call me at your earliest convenience. If I do not hear from you shortly, I will phone one of the other Mayer Brown lawyers on this email chain to learn GSK's position.

Thanks,
Craig

Craig,

We have conferred with our client regarding your request below. Due to the nature of the request and the short timeframe presented, we will not be in a position to provide an answer by the close of business today. GSK is presently considering your request and will be in a position to respond by the end of this week.

Best regards,
Lisa M. Ferri

Counsel:

Pursuant to Local Rule 7-3, we write to inform you that Genentech and City of Hope intend to file the attached amended answer and counterclaims in the above-referenced case. Please let us know, by close of business Monday, whether you will consent to its filing, or whether we must file a motion to seek leave of court.

Thanks,
Craig
